

Tiếng Anh Giao Tiếp với Carter

Hello, learner!

In this PDF, you will learn 4 different ways to say “I don’t like...”, and you can see each way is used in natural conversation. Remember, this is conversational English, so all of these are informal and used in daily life.

Read these conversations out loud alone, or practice with a friend for best results.

Enjoy!

Carter

Phrase: I’m not big on...

Meaning: I don’t really like...

Conversation

A: I’m so hungry. Let’s go eat lunch.

B: Sure. What do you feel like having?

A: Anything with shrimp paste. How about crab noodle soup?

B: I’m not big on shrimp paste, but I’ll eat some crab noodle soup.

A: All right. I’ll pick you up at noon!

Note: “What do you feel like having?” = “What do you want to eat?”

--

Phrase: I’m not a fan of...

Meaning: I don’t like...

Conversation

A: Do you like Vietnamese food?

B: Yeah! I love it.

A: Are there any dishes that you don't like?

B: Hmm... To be honest, I'm not a fan of blood soup.

A: Really? It's not that bad!

B: I know. I just don't like the idea of eating blood.

Note: "The idea of" = the concept of, the thought of

--

Phrase: I'm not crazy about...

Meaning: I don't like...

Conversation

A: What's that?

B: It's balut. Want to try it?

A: Oh, I've tried it before. I'm not crazy about it, though.

B: That's fine. She has skewered meat too, if you're scared...

A: Scared? You know what? Let's order a dozen balut right now!

Note: Skewered meat = thịt xiên

--

Phrase: I can't stand...

Meaning: I hate...

Conversation

A: Are you hungry?

B: Yup! Do you have any ideas?

A: Well, I saw a Netflix documentary about how meat is really bad for the environment...

B: Ok...

A: And that if humans ate insects, it would be much better.

B: Oh no...

A: So, how about some fried water bugs for dinner?

B: Oh HELL no! I can't stand insects!

Note: "Hell no!" = NO!!!, no way!